Brazilian citizens holding equal political rights status, aged over 17 years and living in Portuguese territory, are automatically registered in the electoral register of the parish corresponding to the address on their citizen's card, or when they do not have one, their address in the civil identification system (identical system to that of Portuguese citizens).
How can I find out if I am registered and what's my voter number?	You can get this information, even on election day: At the parish council of your place of residence; Via SMS text message (free of charge) sent to 3838 with the message "RE (space) Citizen's card / ID card number (space) date of birth = yyyyymmdd". For example: "RE 7424071 19820803"; On the Internet at www.recenseamento.mai.gov.pt.
